City Marshal Jno. Barnett went to Hopkinsville Friday afternoon and returned with Jim Green, colored, who is charged with stealing a watch from a negro man and firing a pistol in a coach between Henderson and this place on an excursion train several weeks ago. Green was taken to Madisonville and lodged in jail. He has only been out of the penitentiary a short time and will doubtless go there again when his case is tried. Some good detective work was done by Marshal Barnett in locating and arresting the offender.

No man or woman in the state will hesitate to speak well of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets after once trying them. They always produce a pleasant movement of the bowels, improve the appetite and strengthen the digestion. For sale by St. Bernard Drug Store, Earlington; B. T. Robinson, Mortons Gap; Jno. X. Taylor, Earlington.

Sergt. Tom Peyton won the medal of Co. G at the army Monday night as the best drilled man in the company. The nights that the medal is drilled for usually attract a large number of people and the contest always proves interesting and often very exciting.

Mr. W. J. Trahern, of Lafayette, Ky., who has been traveling salesman for the Christian Paper Tobacco Co., of St. Louis, for a number of years, has resigned his position with that company and has moved his family to this place and will work for the St. Bernard Mining Co.

Express Agent Warner states there was a shipment of 27 crates of bananas, 22 dressed sheep, four crates of tomatoes, two bags of peanuts and 500 watermelons received on this date. The largest part of this shipment was for the A. O. U. W. picnic at Lakeside Park.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

This remedy is certain to be needed in almost every home before the summer is over. It can always be depended upon ever in the most severe and dangerous cases. It is especially valuable for summer disorders in children. It is pleasant to take and never fails to give prompt relief. Why not buy it now? It may save life.

For sale by St. Bernard Drug Store, Earlington; B. T. Robinson, Mortons Gap; Jno. X. Taylor, Earlington.

Mr. and Mrs. Waller Todd entertained a few of their friends Tuesday at dinner. It is entirely unnecessary to state the dinner was exceptionally good, having been prepared by one of the best cooks in Earlington, and also that it was greatly enjoyed by those present. James Priest was one of the guests and it is said he has since been ill either from an overdose of fried chicken or cherry preserves.

Safeguard the Children.

Notwithstanding all that is done by boards of health and charitably inclined persons, the death rate among small children is very high during the hot weather of the summer months in the large cities. There is not probably one case of bowel complaint in a hundred, however, that could not be cured by the timely use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

For sale by St. Bernard Drug Store, Earlington; B. T. Robinson, Mortons Gap; Jno. X. Taylor, Earlington.

The entire work of painting and papering the interior of the Christian church will be finished this week and it will present a comfortable and pleasing appearance. You are cordially invited to attend the services Sunday morning and evening. Subjects of sermons: "Christ in the Church" and "Reasons for Accepting Jesus as the Son of God."

A series of meetings will begin at the M. E. Church, South, next Monday night. They will be conducted by Rev.
